Wixon Named St. Francis Business of the Year

ST. FRANCIS, Wis. – Wixon has been awarded the honor of 2011 Business of the Year by the City of St. Francis and the St. Francis Association of Commerce. The company will be recognized at the Association’s 43rd annual Business Appreciation Night at the Pulaski Inn, 3900 E. Pulaski Ave. in Cudahy, Wis. on Wed., Sept. 28 at 5:30 p.m. Now one of the largest spice, seasonings, and flavor companies in the United States, Wixon was founded by Charles Franklin Wixon as the Wixon Spice Company in 1907 in Chicago.

“We are honored to receive this tremendous award from the City of St. Francis and the St. Francis Association of Commerce,” says Sandy Jaskulski, Wixon’s vice president of administration. “This recognition is a reflection of our dedication to the thriving business community. We are committed to strengthening the local economic future of St. Francis.”

Founded in 1907, Wixon is a fully integrated food and beverage ingredient leader providing flavor technologies, custom-ground spices, blended seasonings, protein expertise, foodservice and menu solutions, and consumer products and packaging. Wixon’s brand promise of Service Driven Culinary Science gives customers the added benefit of food technology enhanced by the creativity of culinary arts. With its advanced scientific and culinary capabilities combined with a passion for service, Wixon drives innovation and provides solutions for its customers. Besides custom flavor formulations, Wixon offers R&D, product development, packaging options, inventory management, and just-in-time delivery. Located in St. Francis, Wis., a suburb of Milwaukee, Wixon is ISO9001 certified and QAI Organic Certified.
